

Each day is a gift.

I will not live in fear.

Thank you for all you've given me, Lord.

Create a clean heart in me.

I will live one day at a time to honor You.

Fill me with trust and joy.

He tends his flock like a shepherd:
He gathers the lambs in his arms
and carries them close to his heart;
He gently leads those that have young.

- Isaiah 40:11
